Here, Defendants respectfully request a 90-day extension to the dispositive motions deadline contained in the scheduling order in this matter, currently set for May 6, 2020. (ECF No. 21 at 3:24-26). The Court entered the scheduling order prior to staying this matter for 90 days as to Defendant Adams pursuant to the American Service-Members Protection Act. (ECF No. 27 at 2).

Defendants submit this extension will allow for the efficient adjudication of this matter, and will preclude all parties from unnecessarily duplicating their efforts in preparing multiple motions, oppositions, etc. Furthermore, such an extension will promote judicial economy in this matter, in that the Defendants will be able to present all substantive issues in this matter to the Court in one motion for summary judgment, thus allowing the Court to come to a comprehensive summary judgment decision in one order.

Additionally, should Plaintiff seek to reopen discovery as to all Defendants, or if the Court is inclined to do so sua sponte in light of this request, Defendants would not oppose such.

Accordingly, for the foregoing reasons, Defendants request this Court extend the dispositive motions deadline currently set in this matter for May 6, 2020 for 90 days until August 4, 2020.

DATED this 5th day of May, 2020.
